

The Do Not Call List law is a great thing in the state of Wisconsin. Leave this law in effect. It has increased uninterrupted family time and in the present world that we live in that comes in short supply so please leave this law alone, it is working.